

Welcome to the Ottawa Police Association

This Association is a labour organization which represents approximately 1900 members including Civilian and Special Constable personnel as well as Police Officers at the ranks of Staff/Sergeant, Sergeant and Constable.

The new Ottawa Police Association was established on January 1st, 1995. This Association was formed as a result of the amalgamation of three historic Police Associations. The Ottawa Police Association, the Nepean Police Association and the Gloucester Police Association, became the strong and vibrant Police Association it is today. To learn more about the Police Association's past, guests are welcomed to visit our History page.

More than ever, the Association takes an active role in representing member's interests, as well as broader issues of policing in general. Through its affiliation with the Police Association of Ontario and the Canadian Police Association, the Ottawa Police Association ensures a voice for its members at a provincial and federal level.

While representing all members, the Association works in conjunction with the Ottawa Police Service to provide the residents of Ottawa with efficient and effective service.

To view our public access rental facilities, check the Facilities (hall, dining lounge) directory.

For our Golden Club members, be sure to visit our Golden Club page.

Steve Boucher
President,
Ottawa Police Association